

Guest Lecture on "COVID-19"

Organized by

Department of Microbiology
Sri Siddhartha Medical College & Hospital,
(A Constituent College of Sri Siddhartha Academy of Higher Education, Deemed to be University U/s 3 of the UGC, Act, 1956, Tumkur, Karnataka)

On

Tuesday, 25th February 2020

A REPORT

Time : 11 am to 12.30 pm

Venue : Microbiology lecture hall, SSMC, Tumkur.

Topic :

"COVID-19: ARE WE READY???"

Speaker:

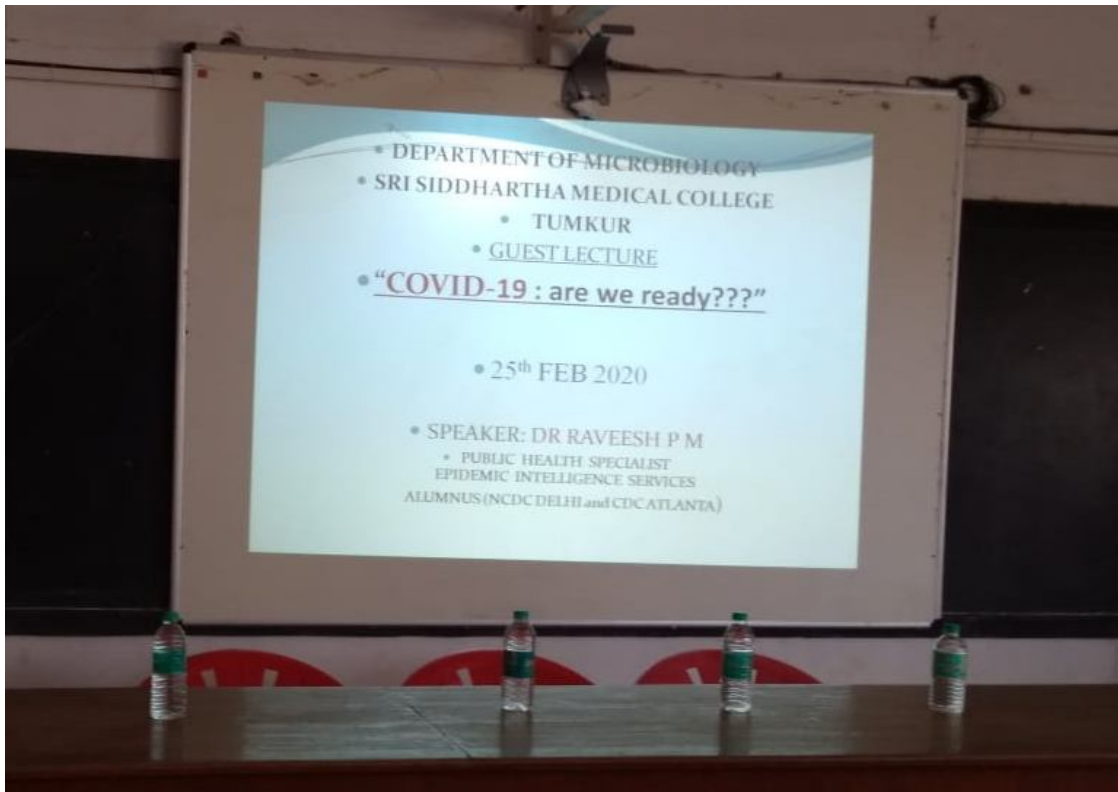

Dr. RAVEESH P M

Public Health specialist,
Epidemic Intelligence services,
Alumnus (NCDC Delhi and CDC Atlanta)

Dr. Prashanth H. V, Professor and HOD of Microbiology, welcomed and introduced the speaker Dr. Raveesh P. M.

The speaker gave a time line of events of the COVID-19 pandemic which started in December 2019. He described the definitions for case identification, present scenario worldwide, details about sample collection and precautions to be taken to prevent the transmission of disease. He also described the preventive measures taken by the government of India to prevent the spread of disease.

The program was attend by staff and medical students. Around one hundred and fifty members attended the guest lecture.

~~~~~